DIVORCES FOR CASH ODELL SUPPRESSED ICE TRUST REPLY.

(Continued from First Page.)

That he never in any manner influenced the granting of dock leases to perso in the ice business. tion, and should be dismissed

ROOSEVELT TO MAKE A STATEMENT LATER.

Wyck's Ice Trust reply in type when after election. morning. The Governor had slept late gible objection to

OYSTER BAY, Nov. 9 .- Gov. Rooses deny nor affirm that he received velt got his first glimpee of Mayor Van despatch from Odell saying that the Va Wyck answer must be suppressed unt to a celebration his neighbors ing out his answer, but that as far as The Governor showed pigling by his be followed and the answer, together with any communications from the Attorney-General, made public when my decision was made public. Beyond that

ODELL IS "INDISPOSED;" WON'T TALK ICE TRUST.

Evening World correspondent here made for me to Roosevelt to suppress Mayor Van view. He sent word from his room Mr. Odell sometimes adds the word that he was "indisposed" and not able "junior" to his name. Mr. Odell would to talk on the subject at all. not ena Later in the day Mr. Odell, when meant.

every effort to-day to see Gov.-Elect Gov Roosevelt is told to suppress Mayor B. B. Odell as to his telegram ordering Van Wyck's charges, Mr. Odell said: "I know how to sign my name and Wyck's Ice Trust reply until after elec. When I sign telegrams I sign them properly. The signature to the telegram is It is my father's spirators.

MAYOR VAN WYCK CURTLY REFUSES TO TALK ICE.

Mayor Van Wyck evidently was greatile election, it was plainly evident, from ly displeased to-day by the publication in The World of his answer to Gov. Roosevelt concerning his connection with the published document.

Detectives Cuff and McNaught prompt his action to-day, that the Mayor does not intend to explain further than in Broadway, and a man who gave his name as Frank Wilson, and his address.

He refused to see reporters and sent out curt instructions that they were not to be allowed even in his outer offices.

Although it was hinted as a campaign argument that the Mayor would himself make public his reply to The World's charges. If the Governor did not, before the first properties of the content of the conte

An Evening World reporter called at

"EVERY GOOD CITIZEN WUST FEEL ASHAMED."

Trust Scanda; The Evening Post to- end. Mr. Rooseveit suppressed the Mayday says editorially:

"The World of this morning contained a great deal of what Horace Greeley used to call 'mighty interesting reading' regarding the Ice Trust. It has secured the answer which Mayor Van Wyck made on the Zith of September to the charges upon which his removal from office was asked; the opinion of the Attorney-General wpon this answer, which that official sent a week later to Gov. Roosevelt, then on his electioneering tour in the West, and a telegram which Mr. Odel addressed to the Governor answer was going as was going on a swer and so could not have displayed to have the old-fashioned yellow-covered novels. follows:

RICH MAN'S WIFE

Man Arrested While Trying to Rescue Her from Loretto Home Window.

It sounds just like a story in one of motes. The one on the string was as ing escape—these are the stirring inclidents of the tale.

Last Wednesday night at 18.45 o'clock

At the station-house the man ways the or's answer for political reasons be-The World of this morning contained cause he had made engagements to de

Last Wednesday night at 10.45 o'clock Policeman Edward Brady, of the East Eighty-eighth street station, saw a man acting suspiciously in front of the Loretta House, at 505 East Ninetleth street. The place is a branch of the House of the GoodShepherd, and is an institution for the treatment of women addicted.

the GoodShepherd, and is an institution for the treatment of women addicted the use of intoxicating liquors.

The policeman thought something was wrong, and asked the man what he was doing there at that hour of the night. The man replied that he was seeking shelter from the rain.

Saw Note on a Siring.

As he spoke a string, attached to which was a piece of paper, descended from an upper window.

The policeman grasped it and placed the man under arrest. He also noticed on the ground at his side another piece of paper. Both papers proved to be when he against the said there was no care against Merkenna and discharged him.

LORD MAYOR'S SHOW.

He was employed by Referee Gros

They hold her as being very important n further proceedings for the "gang's" tetection. STILL A PRISONER.

FABULIST'S LIVERPOOL.

racing of the Liverpool Autumn Meeting to-day the Liverpool Autumn Cup.

Where he was taken. An hour later he died.

The Coroner's office has been notified.

An hour later he was discovered to be suffer ng severely and an ambulance was

LAWYER ZEINER

TRACING THE

What Defaulter Did with $690,000.

Cornellus L. Alvord, ir., the ex-note condone his infractions of the l legal technicalities will be employe at Alvord alone is guilty. That I id schemed for years to secure a post these were offered in evidence stan; District-Attorney Baldwin, attempt has yet been made to sh Alvord spent the money. But ernment attorneys are said to he day. Errors occurred in these sheets nearly every day.

Jacob Cohen, assistant receiving teller and settling clerk of the New York Clearing-House, was the first new witness of the day.

He testified as to the alterations of the Clearing-House sheets.

Then the proof sheets were offered by the Government as evidence and admitted despite the objection of Alvord's rounsel.

No. sir."

No. sir."

The Hanna said that the day the bank was examined he confined his work to the third teller's department and count-The young woman in the case was ossery guarded from questioners by the metals.

They hold her as being very important further proceedings for the game's etection.

What part she played in the matter he District-Attorney refused to say. He authorities at the House of Determined business the final state of televiness of the same of the strength of th

"I arranged, therefore, that Russell should be blaced where he could see the withersees. In a divorce proceeding brought by Zeiner, and to be heard yesterday before Frank D. Shaw, referee, at 120 Broadway.

"The same witnesses appeared, and he reported to Justice Lawrence and me. I am satisfied that this investigation is but the beginning of the reversations." Gustav Knapp, thirty-two years old. committed suicide this afternoon in Tompkins Square Park, at Seventh street and Avenue A. The man was found on one of the benches with a

SHIPPING NEWS.

PORT OF NEW YORK. ARRIVED.

BERNHEIM & CO.'S Bargains Have Become Famous.

SALE OF MANUFACTURERS' CLOTHING STOCKS

Ten days before election, when the trusts were playing for a fall and manufacturers began to feel panicky, we rescued three well-known makers of fine goods by giving them SPOT CASH for their stocks, that had then become unmarketable. We felt that, no matter who would be elected,

HIGH-GRADE CLOTHING BOUGHT AT A SACRIFICE will always find buyers if offered

At Half (1/2) Off Regular Prices. SALE BEGINS AT 9 A.M. TO-MORROW.

Your Chance to Buy Your Winter Needs in CLOTHING, FURNISHINGS, HATS & SHOES at Prices that Will Stir the City from the Bronx to the Battery.

SUITS ALL FURNISHINGS | Rig. OVERCOATS Sale #0.00 Men's All-Wool Cassimere and Striped Worsted $5.00 35c. cach. or 3 for 1.00. Sults, now striped Worsted $5.00 or 3 for 1.00.

$12.00 Genuine Bannockburn Creeking Sults, single or $7.00 loc tan, black or natural Sox. 6c.

$12.00 Mercy Beavers and Meton, including and heavy: $5.95 double breasted.

Fig. All-Wood Cheviot and $1.69 | We have just received 24 cases of manufacturers: samples, made to show this fail's styles and styles and styles and worth H.50 and $2; your choice 88c.

14.30 Fine Worsteds and Styles $2.45 | All our finest the bys and Alpines reduced to a style shellow Vestees, Sailor or $2.45 | All our finest the bys and Alpines reduced to a style shellow Vestees, Sailor or $2.45 | All our finest the bys and Alpines reduced to a style shellow Vestees and Style sh #4.50 Fine Worsteds and Styl-ish Cheviot Vestees, Sallor or $2.45

MEN'S TROUSERS

$4.50 fine Worsted Dress $2.45 Patent Leather Shoes..... $2.45

Assistant Cashler W. E. Snow, who testified yesterday, was recalled to the stand by the Government. He was asked by Attorney Baldwin o explain more in detail the various tems of the bank's business handled each day by Note Teller Alvord. Technical details of the bank were given at some length, no new points being elicited either by the prosecution or the defense.

or the defense.
Joseph Pickard, bookkeeper and general clerk of the New York Clearing-House was also called as a witness and dentified a number of Clearing-House ordered Alverd's attention to the serepancy. Said the mild Mr. Hanns surption on my said the day who had been wronged as this surption on my part, after the mean to an surption on my part, after the mean way I treated you, but I humbly ask your forgiveness. "You knew of no error at that times to be the stand of the clearing thouse sheet." "You knew of no error at that times to be the stand of the lawyer's tirade Mr. Using the said on the stand. "By the pane way I treated you, but I humbly ask your forgiveness." "You knew of no error at that times to be the stand of the lawyer's tirade Mr. Using the said of the lawyer's tirade Mr. "Would not any man have asserted has rights, if he had any?" discrepancy, said the mild Mr. Hanna nessitatingly.

"He said that it was an error in list-ing morning receipts. The figures on Alvord's ledger corresponded with the figures on the Clearing-House sheet."

"You knew of no error at that time, Oct. 13," asked Mr. Miller.

since 1864, appeared as plaintiff's at lorney.

It set an investigation on foot, and has a lower, of good reputs, and insteady, having secured the evidence that has a lower, of good reputs, and that he enjoyed a reputation of twenty tears standing in New York. In view of this he asked that hall in his case be hands and the case in his hands.

It is not for Assistant District.

ALMANAC FOR TO-DAT.

Sun rises. 6.39/San sets. 4.50/Moon rises. 7.22

This Tides.

This Tides.

High Water.

A.M. P.M. A.M. P.

ELECTION CLAIMS CASHED FREE. CLOTHING KEPT IN REPAIR FREE. YOUR MONEY REFUNDED IF YOU WANT IT.

EVENING. CLOTHING, FURNISHINGS, HATS, SHOES. THIRD AVE. DOWNTOWN 127TH ST.

VALET'S LAWYER HOTLY DENOUNCED HOWARD GOULD IN COURT TO-DAY.

(Continued from First Page.)

he unpleasant experience of yesterday. "If, as Mowbray asserts," said Mr. aggert, "Mr. Gould employed this man or life, if he hired the man, who was o be his constant companion, go with im and in the same hotel, for life, it was a most remarkable contract. "Mr. Gould admits that he hired Mow ray, but he absolutely denies hiring him or life, and he also denies the alleged conferences which, Mowbray says, led

"Did Alvoru seening the amount sent to generalize the amount sent to generalize the angular state of the day's business. They were not."
"They were not."
"They were not."
"They were not."
"They were not."
"It is said that he verified the Clearing-House proof sheet of the day's business of appealing from Philip drunk to Philip sober.
"On the 4th of November, 1837, Mowbray writes Mr. Gould a letter that absolutely controverts his claim. Would any man who had been wronged as this man says he was have used such larguage as this:
"Excuse the liberty I take in appealable to the mean would ask."

The "Mud Batteries."

HOWARD GOULD'S OWN STATEMENT.

wish to thank The Evenius case was reported.

(In a statement to an Evenius World reporter.)

which evasive?"

During all the lawyer's tirade Mr.
Gould sat calmly. Mowbray, right across the table from his former master, each west gum vigorously and leaned forward, all attention.

The Judge said that if the jury die

"Would not any man have assected that rights it he had any man have assected that rights it he had any man have assected that rights it he had any man have assected that rights it he rights it he had not received the interest."

"We know when we entered upon this created that the concluding that the mud batteries would be open that the stream of the stand of the stream of the years of the stream of the years of the stream of the years of the stand of the stream of the years of the stand of the stream of the years of the stand of the stream of the years of the stand of the stream of the years of the stream of the years of the stand of the stream of the years of the stream of the years of the stand of the stand of the stand of the stream of the years of the stand of the stand of the stand of the stream of the years of the stand of the stream of the years of the stream of the years of the stand of

"When Mowbray was about to go on the stand I told him not to testify to certain things that happened to a woman on the yacht, but when they tried to make out Mowbray an ex-convict, I said:

"Get Ahead, Mowbray."

"Now, Mowbray, go ahead and tell all you know."

"Now, Mowbray, go ahead and tell all you know."

"Now Mowbray, go ahead and tell all you know."

"No was could. At that time he was a little timid about it. He didn't want such things whispered about. And he promised Mowbray a life position to keep silent and serve him.

"See you're talking about a contract, are you?" Go to see Taggert and Dillon, to to see my dogs of war!"

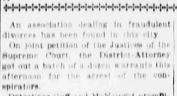

"He knew the statute of limitations have the wait for damage in the usait for thousands of our most prominent people that have about to compare the two men." He was released. Original and the Holland, and up in the statute of limitations are the wast for the statute of limitations are to see which the statute of limitations are to see the statute of limitations are to see the statute of limitations are to see the see which the statute of limitations are to see the see which the statute of limitations are to see the see which the statute of limitations are to see the see which the statute of limitations are to see the see which the statute of limitations are to see the see which the statute of limitations are to see the see which the s

Paties for 'sage Manage to Handle In the vicinity of Ludgate Circ bulance wagons were held in research to the control of the c seared to be refined in manner. She efused her address. How the Revelation Came

DEALT IN BY GANG.

It was Stenographer A. G. Russell, o Broadway, who led to the detection enor Hubbard in the divorce case Byrde G. Herrick against her husband the oid-fashioned yellow-covered novels.

That is what Magistrate Cornell, of the Hariem Court, said. Dark night.

The Hariem Court, said. Dark night, might will be ready to get out next Saturday misty rain, mysterious man in the shadow of a doorway, polloeman in hiding, string bearing a note dangling from an upper window, beautiful woman seek. If everything is all right I will have two lights in my window. If anything is wrong I will display one light.

The other note was evidently.

The other note was evidently an investigation on foot and he was a lawyer, of good reputs, and the men were taught.

Justice Scott said this afternoon in the reported to Justice Lawrence and the reported to Justice Lawrence

LONDON. Nov. 8 -- At the third lay's ward, one mile and three furiouss, was won by Mr. J. D. Wardell's Fabulist. Lord Farquhar's Japonica came in second, and Mr. A. F. Bassel's Good. Luck was third. Eighteen horses ran.

the institution.

When the Magistrate heard the story he raid there was no case against Mebe and discharged him.

DIED AFTER ARREST.

Show was witnessed to-day by unusually big crowds, which were easily handled by the large police force on duty.

In the vicinity of Ludgate Circus ambulance wasons were held in readness, but there was no serious crush.

Marry Dean fifty-eight years old whose address is not known, was found but there was no serious crush.

Second. and Mr. A. F. Bassel's Good Seventh Fire Victim FUUND

Second. and Mr. A. F. Bassel's Good Seventh Fire Victim FUUND

Second. and Mr. A. F. Bassel's Good Seventh Fire Victim FUUND

Luck was third. Eighleen horses ran.

DIED AFTER ARREST.

The Hidy of Patrick Hennessy Uncarted and the start light in the ruing of the Tarrant building at Warren and Greenwich streets. It is thought to be that of Patrick Hennessy. Caledonias. Liverpool. San Juan. Porto Rico Conus, New Orieans.

The Hidy of Patrick Hennessy Uncarted and the ruing of the Tarrant building at Warren and Greenwich streets. It is thought to be that of Patrick Hennessy. In the ruing of the Tarrant building at Warren and Greenwich streets. It is thought to be that of Patrick Hennessy. In Caledonias. Liverpool. Another boo was found at the ruing of the Tarrant building at Warren and Greenwich streets. It is thought to be that of Patrick Hennessy. In Caledonias. Liverpool. More otatis, Havana. Rotterdam, Ro

SEVENTH FIRE VICTIM FOUND

OUTGOING STEAMSHIPS
SAILED TO-DAY
Peninsular, Atores,
Malannas, Tampico,
Excelsior, New Orlean